

10th annual Macomb Early Childhood Conference

A professional development opportunity for teachers of infants, toddlers, and preschoolers.

Saturday, January 28, 2012

Doors open at 8:00 am and the last workshop ends at 3:45 pm

Macomb Community College

South Campus, K Building (12 Mile Rd. and Hayes)

Keynote Speaker

Phillip D. Hamberg, L.M.S.W., L.M.F.T., Program Director of Head Start, Kent County, MI

7 Basic Assumptions about Learning

Teaching has become an increasingly difficult profession because, more than any other time in history, teachers are expected to be skilled in teaching students how to build relationships. This presentation covers 7 basic assumptions about learning and relationships, such as: "It is possible to have a brain and not have a mind." Effective teachers care first and then watch and cheer as students learn through the relationship. Good teaching works because of its relationship to love and development of an attachment.

Workshops

Exciting workshops in the morning and two sessions in the afternoon explore a variety of topics including guidance, literacy, creative activities, and more. This conference is designed for those who teach children, birth to age five. Attendees will receive a certificate indicating .5 CEUs have been earned.

Vendors, door prizes, a light breakfast, and lunch are provided.

Registration

Limited to 300 participants. Applications are available online at www.macomb.edu. Click on WebAdvisor and then Continuing Education, or call 586.498.4000.

92817. . . . . ECHS 8002 SD301 . . . . . Macomb Student Registration: $30

92818. . . . . ECHS 8002 SC301 . . . . . Non-Student Registration: $40

Diaper Drive

Bring a package of diapers, any size, and receive an extra raffle ticket.

If two people share the cost of one package, they may both receive an extra ticket.

Diapers will be delivered to Macomb Food Bank.

Artwork by Dalton

Presented by

